

K-LOVE is an important Radio station in our community, carrying great music. I believe it would be sad for our community to be without this wholesome programing that K-LOVE provides. Our young people are especially given wholesome input with the words as well as the music, which does not cause depression and suicidal tendencies. Much of today's secular music is sadly destroying our young people, who should be encouraged for good and becoming responsible citizens for their leadership days in our USA.